

Spring is here, so CIN presents its colour of the year 2019: #E727 Savasana

At the end of 2018, CIN added six new colours to its iconic CIN Color Revelation catalogue.

These colours are what's trending in 2019 and include CIN's colour of the year, Savasana #E727: a light and timeless colour with a name that comes from a yoga position, conveying total relaxation and wellbeing.

The new grey-beige shade is an invitation to softness, tranquillity and balance in the home. Savasana #E727 combines with all styles of decor and is notable for its feeling of lightness and stillness that calls for reconnection.
