

2nd - 5th October 2025, Warsaw

FESTIVAL MORE THAN THEATRE.

ODIN TEATRET 60 YEARS

Performances, films, seminars, workshops

The festival More Than Theatre is a celebration of the 60th Anniversary of Odin Teatret organised in Warsaw (Poland) – a city, where Eugenio Barba started his theatre education. The festival is an occasion to become personally acquainted with the history and the practice of one of the most experienced theatre groups in Europe, during meetings and workshops led by Odin Teatret's director and actors. It will be also a chance to see the latest premiere of the group – Hamlet's Clouds.

The programme of practical workshops and reflective seminars covers the most important issues in the work of the group, among others: actor/dancer's training and dramaturgy, theatre anthropology, social engagement of the theatre.

Read more about the Odin Teatret: <https://odinteatret.org/>

The festival is also a chance to explore Warsaw, a capital city of Poland and of the Masovian Voivodeship. It is a very diverse and dynamic metropolis, where historical buildings sit side by side with modern architecture and green areas. Warsaw, located on the two banks of the Vistula River, is also well known as an important cultural centre, with wide range of museums, art galleries and theatres.

Read more: <https://go2warsaw.pl/en/main-page/>

Organisational details:

The participation fee: 350 Euro

The fee covers: workshops, seminars, work presentation, family performance. Each participant is also guaranteed entry to one performance of HAMLET'S CLOUDS. The organizers are offering to help find accommodation.

Deadline for applying: 27th of July

Latest confirmation will be given: 4th of August

Deadline for payment: 24th of August

Working language: English

The participants are required to arrive at the Mazovian Institute of Culture (Elektoralna Street, Warsaw) no later than 9.30 am on 2nd October and leave no earlier than 2.30 pm on 5th October.

Link to the application form here.

Contact:

odin60warsaw@mik.waw.pl

The festival More Than Theatre is organised by Odin Teatret, the Mazovian Institute of Culture, the Institute of Polish Culture (Warsaw University) and is supported by the Ministry of Culture of Poland. It will take place at Mazovian Institute of Culture in the centre of Warsaw.