PRESS RELEASE

Mikomax Announces Organizational Changes and Rebranding

The Global Acoustic Pod Manufacturer from Poland, Mikomax established in 1994, rebrands to Hushoffice and changes the leadership team as CEO Maciej Mikołajczyk steps down.

After four years in the role, Maciej Mikołajczyk has decided to step down as CEO of the Mikomax Group.

"We are impressed by the success of Hushoffice during Maciej Mikołajczyk's tenure and accept his decision with regret," says Henning Figge, President of the Management Board of Mikomax. "Under his leadership, the company transformed from a European furniture manufacturer into a global expert in acoustic solutions. We thank Maciej for his contributions and wish him the best for his next steps."

Maciej Mikołajczyk has been involved in the office interior solutions industry for more than 25 years. Together with his father and the company's former CEO and founder, Janusz Mikołajczyk, he implemented the growth strategy for the global Hushoffice brand. In 2022, Mikomax formed a partnership with Haworth, one of the world's leading office furniture manufacturing companies. As part of the Haworth Group, now Hushoffice is one of the group's acoustic brands representing outstanding expertise and experience in the pod segment.

In Maciej's footsteps will follow a leadership team consisting of experienced leaders in the industry.

Beginning in February of this year, Bartłomiej Borowiec will join as new Chief Sales Officer. He previously worked at the Barlinek Group as VP of Sales & Marketing. David Barrass who has supported the transition from Mikomax to Hushoffice will take on the new role of Chief Product Officer and continue to strategically develop and strengthen the Hushoffice portfolio. Sławomir Szachmytowski, with the company for 7 years as Operations Director, will assume the role of Chief Operating Officer. Kamil Mika, previously Finance Manager at Haworth Poland, will assume the role of Chief Finance Officer. Lastly Paulina Wiczorkiewicz, formerly HR Director for the last 4 years will take on the role of Chief HR Officer.

The changes will take effect in March 2026. The company remains focused on further expanding its acoustic pod portfolio and strengthening global sales.

Hushoffice is one of the world's leading acoustic pod brands, based in Poland.

The company specializes in manufacturing acoustic pods from one to eight people for workspaces, public areas or collaborative environments. With over 30 years of experience designing innovative workplace solutions, Hushoffice products are improving the workspace experience in more than 50 countries across the globe.
